Gymnasium Rules

- During Family times, all individuals under the age of 18 must be directly supervised by a parent/guardian. Absolutely no ADULT basketball games may take place during this time. If those participants in the family do not appropriately utilize this time, please bring it to the Fitness staff's attention and they will determine whether to open the gym for all ages.
- Photo I.D. is required for use of any gymnasium equipment (basketball or volleyball checkout).
- During peak times, the gymnasium will be divided into quarters to accommodate more basketball games. Also, players are required to rotate in and out of games, to ensure that everyone has a chance to play. Players on the losing team cannot be picked up by the team that has next game, unless no other players/teams are waiting. Games may be timed and sign-up sheets will be utilized to ensure that all players have a chance to play.
- Shirt and non-marking shoes are required at all times in the gym and public areas.
- ABSOLUTELY NO STREET SHOES IN GYMNASIUM. YOU MUST CHANGE YOUR SHOES PRIOR TO ENTERING THE GYMNASIUM.
- Times that are designated 'Volleyball' need a minimum of 4 players to set up the net. Basketball players or other guests could be displaced if volleyball players show up to play.
- No food allowed in gymnasium. Beverages accepted as long as they are in a closed plastic container.
- Gym equipment is to be used only in the gymnasium.
- No dunking or hanging on rims or backboards (this may be cause for removal from gym).

I have read and understand ALL of the above rules
